

“Something From There”

National Gallery of Ireland Community Project
Invitation to Apply

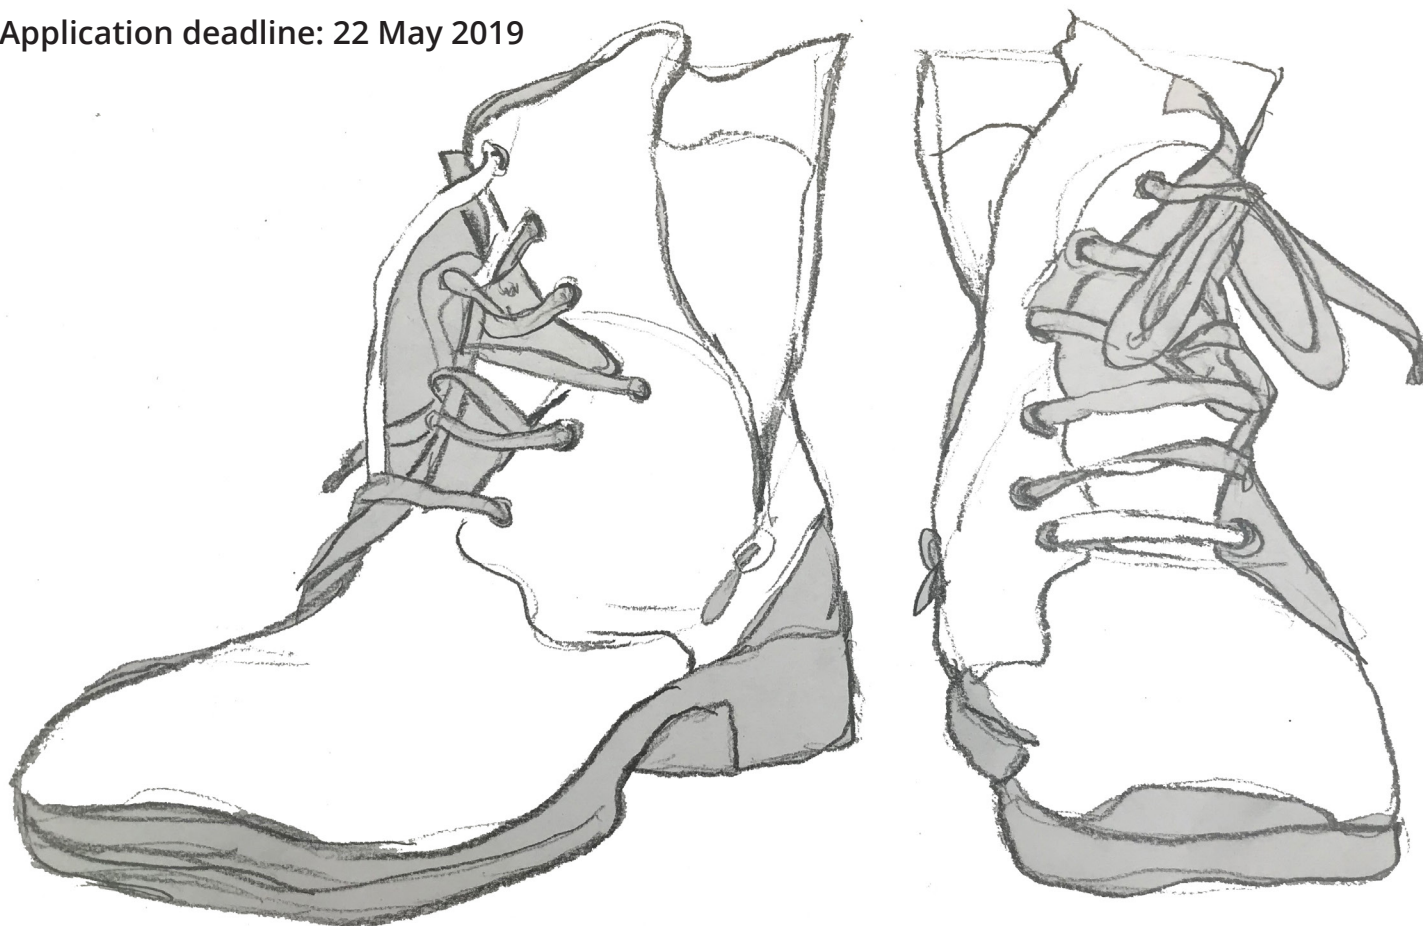

The National Gallery in Dublin wishes to reach out to a wide range of people living in Direct Provision to explore your experiences of coming to and living in Ireland.

This artist-led project will take its lead from an object or objects that you might have brought here to Ireland with you, and the meaning that these objects might now have.

Participation in the project will include attendance at workshops in the Gallery once a month between June and December 2019. The Gallery encourages people from all communities to apply, including members of the LGBTQIA+ community.

There are a limited number of places available on this project. If you are interested in participating please go to www.nationalgallery.ie, or contact us at education@ngi.ie, or on (01) 6633510.

Application deadline: 22 May 2019

Details:

The Gallery based workshops will take place from 10:30am to 3pm monthly, June – December 2019. The first workshop will take place on 8 June.

All transport and catering costs will be covered by the Gallery.

Participants will be awarded with a certificate of participation as recognition of their involvement and achievements.
